

Buy an NHS HRT
Prescription Prepaid
Certificate (HRT PPC)

BETA This is a new service – your feedback (Link: #) will help us to improve it.

Done

You have prepaid for 12 months of prescriptions.

We have emailed your certificate to you

You requested your HRT Prescription Prepayment Certificate (HRT PPC) to be emailed, so you won't receive a certificate in the post.

If a pharmacist asks for evidence that you have prepaid, you must show them your HRT prepayment certificate details.

You can save the HRT PPC onto your mobile device as a PDF, take a photo of it, or print out a copy for evidence

Ask your pharmacist for help if you don't have evidence of your HRT PPC with you.

Certificate for:

Jane Doe

Certificate number

1000000001234

Starts on:

1 January 2022

Ends on:

1 January 2023

We have sent your certificate details to Jane.doe@nhs.net. You can also print this page.

Print your certificate

Collecting prescriptions

Tick box 'F' on the back of your prescription. TBC

Pharmacy staff ask for prepayment details. If you do not have them with you, they tick 'Evidence not seen' on the prescription. They will not charge you.

We prevent fraud by matching certificate details on our database with prescriptions.
